Christ the Savior is Born!

Early Sunday morning snow did not affect the warmth of joy that characterized our worship last weekend. In the morning we talked about what it meant to move from fear to joy. Then at 11 pm, the joy of Christ's coming was celebrated with the retelling of the Christmas story, the lighting of the Christ candle, communion, and our beautiful candlelight experience as we sang Silent Night. May the joy of Christ's coming continue to bring you joy, now and always.

Unidiversity Youth Camp- July 22-28th

Deposits due Feb 4th

Our youth are heading back to Unidiversity Camp this year (July 22-28th). Like many of the camps we have been to, Unidiversity offers the opportunity for our students to meet, worship, and grow with other students from churches around the country. Unidiversity offers a good mix of fun, worship, and community that our students look forward to.

The cost for camp will be $230 per camper, with a $30 discount for additional siblings. There is the possibility of leaving early or coming back a day later if we add a side trip (cost may fluctuate depending on additional activities). As always, further financial assistance is available if needed. Please contact Michael at mmcentyre@fbc-columbia.org. $50 deposits for camp are due by Feb 4th.

Critical Conversations in Troubled Times

Beginning in January, First Baptist will be partnering with Second Missionary Baptist Church and Broadway Christian Church to participate in a conversation about racism and how faith communities can help bring about grassroots change. The kickoff will be a potluck dinner on January 14 at 4:30 at Second Missionary Baptist Church in Columbia. The meat will be provided. You are invited to bring a dish of food to share.

The conversation will revolve around reading and discussing “America’s Original Sin: Racism, White Privilege, and the Bridge to a New America” by Jim Wallis. We will meet monthly on a Sunday evening to talk about the book and learn from one another. The books are being provided by a grant, which Broadway Christian received. To get your free book and join the conversation, RSVP to Janet Deneke at churchinfo@fbc-columbia.org.
