Bigger and Better Bake Sale for Missions

This year we are changing our annual missions bake auction up a bit. In the past, we have encouraged the men in the church to bring a dessert item to auction at the church picnic in what was called the "Pepto-Bismol Challenge." After several years of participating in this event, the dishes that have been offered are anything but abysmal. In fact, I have tasted some of the finest delicacies I've ever had from these entries. As such, we've decided to retire the name "Pepto-Bismol Challenge" and open up this opportunity to all our church members. So if you have a talent for creating tasty treats, we hope you will enter your finest confectionery delight in the Missions' Auction on June 9th at the Church Picnic. All the proceeds benefit a special Missions project to be announced soon. Thank you for your support and happy baking!

Assistive Listening Devices

We are working to improve our assistive listening devices. We have new headphones to go with them and have adjusted some of the levels to improve your experience. You should notice a marked difference. If you have questions or comments, please contact Associate Pastor Michael McEntyre or the church office.

Child Development Center Graduation

The Child Development Center celebrated the graduation of twelve preschoolers this past Friday. The graduation ceremony began with musical selections performed by children from all of CDC's classes and was led by Colleen Ostercamp. CDC Director, Jess Wolfe, gave special recognition to Kate Hazelton, CDC Marketing Coordinator, who is moving on to an internship in St. Louis following her graduation from the University of Missouri this May. Also recognized were CDC's four lead teachers, Marilyn Canole, Michelle Pons, Chelsea Wells, and Alissa Shoemaker, along with all the classroom assistants and aides, who give so generously of their time and talents to the children of the CDC. Following the graduation ceremony was a potluck picnic shared by all!

30th Anniversary Concert of the Columbia Handbell Ensemble

June 8 at 7 pm

For 30 years, First Baptist Church has been home of the nationally recognized Columbia Handbell Ensemble, and to commemorate these years of excellence, the ensemble will be presenting a concert on Saturday, June 8 in our sanctuary. The ensemble has an amazing list of accomplishments and is one of the longest running community groups in the nation. The group has played for 9 regional and national events of the Handbell Musicians of America; has 21 selections written specifically for the CHE; has involved over 90 ringers, including 11 First Baptist members; was founded by First Baptist members Deb Carr and Ed Rollins (and they have conducted for 25 of the 30 years); and has collaborated with over 30 organizations from across mid-Missouri. Former ringers and directors will be participating in the concert.

You are invited to join us for this musical celebration and for a reception honoring 30 years of existence. Tickets are $7 in advance, $10 at the door, and $1 for children 12 and under. Contact Ed Rollins at rollins@fbc-columbia.org for additional information or tickets.

Enneagram & Relationships Group

June 9

Beginning Sunday, June 9, at 10:15am in the Hospitality Room, Pastoral Resident Brittany McDonald Null will lead a 6-week discussion on The Path Between Us and the Enneagram and relationships. Each week the group will focus on a different topic regarding the Enneagram and relationships, rather than discussing number-by-number, so it is recommended that you read the book (and especially your type) prior to the first meeting.

To register, email Brittany McDonald Null at bnull@fbc-columbia.org.
