Call to Worship (based on John 3:16) (unison)

For God so loved the world;
The sparrows, the mountain lions,
the fish and the people.

For God so loved the world;
In success and failure,
in sickness and health,
in mediocrity and in the extraordinary.

For God so loved the world;
Enough to become one of us,
enough to suffer along with us,
enough to offer new life for us.

For God so loved the world;
Let us worship God!

Opening Worship Song

Your Love Is Wild

Song of Praise

We Believe

Invitation to Pass the Peace of Christ

Prayer: Extravagant Love (responsive)

Extravagant God, who gave all,
even your life, without calculating the cost,

your love is everywhere.

You do not hold your love back to be admired from a distance

but pour your precious gift out for us at great price.

So may we love –

purely,

dangerously,

wildly,

extravagantly,

creating a scandal of grace.

Let us love for love's sake, seeing each day as the chance to do a spontaneous, irrational, risky act of love in Christ's name

whose love so amazing, so divine, demands our souls, our lives, our all. Amen.

†Gospel Reading

John 3:1-17

Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. He came to Jesus by night and said to him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God.” Jesus answered him, “Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above.” Nicodemus said to him, “How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother’s womb and be born?”

Jesus answered, “Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not be astonished that I said to you, ‘You must be born from above.’ The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.”

Nicodemus said to him, “How can these things be?” Jesus answered him, “Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things? “Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. “Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to Christ.

John 1 (selected verses)

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth.

† Benediction (responsive)

Let us rejoice:

God so loves the world!

May God your Maker send you back into the world with creative energies refreshed.

May Christ the Light illuminate your darkest moments.

And may the Holy Spirit of steadfast love guide you until we worship together again this day and forevermore.

Amen.Going to Serve

Parent Meeting

The Children's Ministry team is excited to announce that this summer, First Baptist will host our inaugural day camp for children age 3 through those entering 6th grade. First Kids Camp will be held Monday, July 31 – Wednesday, August 2. The camp is a reinvention of Vacation Bible School, and is part of First Baptist's work to build a support net for families in the church and community. For more information, to get involved, or to give input, please join us for a parent meeting today at 4 pm in the hospitality room next to the sanctuary.

New Sunday Small Groups began today

First Baptist will be hosting Financial Peace University, which walks you through the basics of budgeting, dumping debt, and planning for your financial future, in its Flex format started this morning with an introductory session. This format is designed to fit into a 55 minute Small Group class that will take place in the 10:15 hour between services. Class participants will watch the video lessons at home, and the Sunday morning session will consist of a brief video recap, discussion, and activities. This is a very convenient way for busy individuals and couples to take a life-changing class! Simply visit <https://fpu.com/1038339> to register for the course. Contact Amanda Jacobs at amanda@jacobsrealty.com or Caryn McClanhan at caryn@jacobsrealty.com for more information.

The Discussion Class, which meets in the Parlor on the second floor of the education building, began a new series on the book Final Words From the Cross by Adam Hamilton. Each session will include a 10 minute video of the author discussing the saying from Jesus. Moving through each chapter, you will begin to understand and respond to Jesus' final words at the cross while learning about those who were eye witnesses to the crucifixion. In the final chapter, Hamilton moves beyond the cross to Jesus' words to the disciples on the road to Emmaus and to those who were witnesses to the Resurrection. Bob Russell will be leading the series.

Please join us for either of these classes next Sunday.
