Luke 22:14-23

When the hour came, he took his place at the table, and the apostles with him. He said to them, ‘I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer; for I tell you, I will not eat it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.’ Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he said, ‘Take this and divide it among yourselves; for I tell you that from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes.’ Then he took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, ‘This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.’ And he did the same with the cup after supper, saying, ‘This cup that is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood. But see, the one who betrays me is with me, and his hand is on the table. For the Son of Man is going as it has been determined, but woe to that one by whom he is betrayed!’ Then they began to ask one another which one of them it could be who would do this.

Meditation for Preparation (unison)

The fruit of the vine was probably more frequently consumed for meals than even water in ancient civilizations where sterilization sometimes depended on fermentation. And to share a cup of wine at a meal was more than simply an exercise in proximity. It was a statement of relationship in a society that drew boundaries around appropriate table-company. Wine shared with those who Jesus knew would cower and betray him became a statement of forgiveness, of grace given “already.” And it became a metaphor for the life he was about to give up on behalf of justice for all in the name of God. Such an element is central to our understanding of God’s saving act in Jesus Christ.

Call to Worship (responsive)

Come and remember the love of Jesus,
Gathered at table with his friends.

We come to receive from Christ the bread of life,
the cup of blessing;

Come, receive the tender service Christ offers each of us;

We come to receive the challenge of the new commandment:

“Love one another.”

Come and contemplate the many temptations
of a world that would entice us, like Judas,

to betray the trust of a suffering God.

We come to travel with Jesus the way of the Cross,
so that our Easter “alleluia” will take on new meaning.

Let us worship together and reflect upon the life of Christ,
that we might remember
what discipleship may cost,
and what it may reap.

Gospel Reading

Misty Phillips

John 13:21-30

After saying this Jesus was troubled in spirit, and declared, "Very truly, I tell you, one of you will betray me." The disciples looked at one another, uncertain of whom he was speaking. One of his disciples—the one whom Jesus loved—was reclining next to him; Simon Peter therefore motioned to him to ask Jesus of whom he was speaking. So while reclining next to Jesus, he asked him, "Lord, who is it?" Jesus answered, "It is the one to whom I give this piece of bread when I have dipped it in the dish." So when he had dipped the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas son of Simon Iscariot. After he received the piece of bread, Satan entered into him. Jesus said to him, "Do quickly what you are going to do." Now no one at the table knew why he said this to him. Some thought that, because Judas had the common purse, Jesus was telling him, "Buy what we need for the festival"; or, that he should give something to the poor. So, after receiving the piece of bread, he immediately went out. And it was night.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to Christ.

Prayer: Extravagant Love (unison)

Extravagant God, who gave all,
even your life, without calculating the cost,
your love is everywhere.

You do not hold your love back
to be admired from a distance
but pour your precious gift
out for us at great price.

Like wine from an overturned bottle,
it spills from your heart into ours.
So may we love –

purely,
dangerously,
wildly,
extravagantly,
creating a scandal of grace.

Let us love for love's sake, seeing each day as the chance to do a spontaneous, irrational, risky act of love
in Christ's name
whose love so amazing, so divine,
demands our souls, our lives, our all. Amen.

Offertory – Song of Confession

You Love Me Anyway

Message

Judas, Disciple and Betrayer of Jesus

Carol McEntyre

John 1: 4b-5: In him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness,
and the darkness did not overcome it.

John 1:9: The true light, which enlightens everyone,
was coming into the world.

Prayer of Confession (responsive)

Surely not I, Lord? Surely not us? Surely not.

Surely I am not the one who will betray you.

Surely we are not the ones.

*It's someone else who denies knowing you,
someone else who uses you for their own gain,
someone else who wants to control you.*

Surely not us.

For the times when we protest too much...

For the times we point fingers to cover up our own wrong...

For the times we think of ourselves more highly than we ought...

forgive us.

*For the times we have betrayed you with our words –
speaking thoughtlessly,
hurting someone to get a laugh,*

*denying that your call extends to the parts of our lives
we would rather keep to ourselves...*

For the times we have betrayed you with our actions –
living as if you are confined to the sanctuary,
*acting as if we have been given domination over,
rather than stewardship of, your creation,*
walking away from those in need, literally and politically...

*For the times we have betrayed you with our hearts –
putting you far down our priority lists,*
loving our ideas about you more than we love you,
longing for our way to be the one you choose...

forgive us.

*For the times we have lived contrary to our baptism,
dipping our hand in the bowl but keeping our whole selves out,*
believing we can earn grace...

forgive us.

Surely not I, Lord?

You have said so.

*The truth rings in our ears...
and it hurts, O God, to admit it:*

It is us.

We follow other gods,

we are a poor reflection of your glory,

we use our wealth, status, and power in ways contrary to your will,

we imprison you in our understanding of your word,

we refuse to create justice or to love mercy,

and walking humbly with you

would mean letting go of our way.

*The truth hurts us, Lord,
even as we hear you say:*

You have said so.

And yet we believe –

we believe that you have the power to transform us

and through us to transform the world.

We believe that your grace is enough.

We believe that we have received more love than we can imagine.
We believe that you are the Way, the Life, and the Truth –
the truth that sets us free.
Amen.
