Hebrew Bible Reading

2 Kings 25:1-7

And in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came with all his army against Jerusalem, and laid siege to it; they built siegeworks against it all around. So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah. On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine became so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land. Then a breach was made in the city wall; the king with all the soldiers fled by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, by the king's garden, though the Chaldeans were all around the city. They went in the direction of the Arabah. But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho; all his army was scattered, deserting him. Then they captured the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, who passed sentence on him. They slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, then put out the eyes of Zedekiah; they bound him in fetters and took him to Babylon.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Lamentations 1:1-4

How lonely sits the city
that once was full of people!
How like a widow she has become,
she that was great among the nations!
She that was a princess among the provinces
has become a vassal.
She weeps bitterly in the night,
with tears on her cheeks;
among all her lovers
she has no one to comfort her;

all her friends have dealt treacherously with her,
they have become her enemies.

Judah has gone into exile with suffering
and hard servitude;
she lives now among the nations,
and finds no resting place;
her pursuers have all overtaken her in the midst of her distress.

The roads to Zion mourn,
for no one comes to the festivals;
all her gates are desolate,
her priests groan;
her young girls grieve,
and her lot is bitter.

Lament in a Culture of Rainbows and Kittens

Carol McEntyre

Prayer of Lament (inspired by Psalm 77)

God, we call out to you!
From the depths of our hearts, we cry,
“Lord, hear our prayer!”

We are consumed by grief.
it’s hard to sleep,
it’s hard to eat,
it’s even hard to pray.

Where are you, God?

Deep down, we know that you love us—
we’ve experienced your mercy and your faithfulness in the past, and it has sustained us through many difficult times.

We refuse to believe that you have deserted us,
or that you are unaware of the pain that we're feeling.

And so we turn to you again,
longing for your presence,
looking for your comfort and peace.

Surround us with your unfailing love.
Remind us that you alone are God,
and that you hold us in the palm of your hand.

Give us courage and strength to face the days ahead, and strengthen us in the knowledge that we do not face them alone.

In the name of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, we pray.
Amen.

Critical Conversations

The Critical Conversations event has been rescheduled for Sunday, Feb 25, at 5 pm at Second Baptist Church.

First Baptist Hosts Room at the Inn February 18 – March 3

For those in our community without adequate housing, winter is potentially deadly. That is why we are grateful for the ministry of Room at the Inn (RATI). RATI is a winter shelter designed for those in need, to provide a warm and safe place to sleep from 7:00 pm - 7:00 am through March 10. The shelter is supported by area churches and local volunteers.

First Baptist hosts Room at the Inn from today through Saturday, March 3 in the Fellowship Hall. Please visit <http://www.roomattheinncomo.org> to sign up to work, or to learn more about the needs.

Trip to Lakota Reservation – Interest Survey

First Baptist has been invited to return to the Lakota Reservation in Bridger again this summer.

There is no big project scheduled for this year, so the trip will mainly focus on building and maintaining relationships within the reservation and possibly some light construction work, clean up, and help with maintenance needs at the Takini School. We need at least 10 people to make the trip but can take up to 20. We will also need people willing to cook this year, as we will not be teaming with Second Baptist in Liberty for this trip. The cost of the trip is expected to remain at $100 per person.

As a reminder, when we stay in Bridger we sleep at the church. Participants are asked to bring their own air mattresses and bedding. There are showers and restrooms on site. If you have questions or are interested in being a part of this experience, please contact Associate Pastor Michael McEntyre at mmcentyre@fbc-columbia.org by March 4.

Two First Baptist Adventures

Paula Thomas, Fellowship Ministry Coordinator, has February and March adventures planned for First Baptist members and friends. To sign up, or to learn more about cost and other details, please contact Paula at paulalou52@gmail.com.

♦ Tuesday, February 27: dinner at Addison's at 5 pm, followed by your choice of concerts at 7 pm. King's Daughters & Sons Benefit Concert is at First Baptist (see poster on bulletin board). At Sacred Heart Church, the MU School of Music's Ars Nova Singers will perform music inspired by artwork from the Museum of Art and Archaeology. This concert is free. Please RSVP for the meal by February 25 to Paula or to the church office.

♦ Saturday, March 24: Barefoot in the Park at the New Theatre Restaurant in Overland Park, Kansas. The group will leave Columbia at 8 am for the Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art; then leave the Nelson at 11:45 for the Theatre to enjoy a buffet lunch prior to the show. The group will stop for dessert on the way home, and arrive back in Columbia around 6:30 pm. If interested, please contact Paula by February 20.
