Invocation (unison)

Keeper of our lives,
you know the hardness and gentleness of human hearts.
You call your people to faithful living.
Through the storms of life
that bring suffering and fear, joy and laughter,
teach us to turn to you for all we need,
so that we may come to know your presence even in the midst of the trials that surround us. Amen.

Introduction of Guest Speaker

Missions Moment

Rev. Muriel L. Johnson

Prayer of Confession (responsive)

God of love and power, we listen to the stories of miracles and doubt that these things can happen today.

We look at the waves of misfortune, distress, misery, distrust, and anger and wonder how we can still those waves.

We feel the pressures of power and fear flooding into our lives, threatening to drown us and wonder where you are.

Forgive us for the littleness of our faith.

Forgive us for our doubts.

Help us to place our trust in you, Lord Jesus.

Help us to fix our eyes on you and on the ministries to which you have called us.

Words of Assurance

Fear not!

God is with us, stilling the storms and raging fears in our lives.

Place your trust in God always.

Amen.

Gospel Reading

Misty Phillips

Mark 4:35-41

On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, “Let us go across to the other side.” And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, “Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?” He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Peace! Be still!” Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, “Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?” And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, “Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?”

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise be to Christ.

Meet today's speaker:

Reverend Muriel L. Johnson is an ordained American Baptist Minister who accepted her call into ministry in 1989. She is the first woman licensed by Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Madison WI, where she is affectionately referred to as the "First Daughter" of the church. For the past 15 years, she has served as a Regional Associate Minister (The first African American to do so) for the American Baptist Churches of the Great River Region. In essence, her ministry charge is to "CARE" (Challenge, Assist, Represent and Equip) for congregations and clergy as they live out the Gospel of Jesus Christ together in word and deed. She teaches and preaches the Gospel of Jesus Christ with detailed attention to the sacred text, a sensitivity of the human predicament and a great sense of humor. Reverend Johnson currently resides in Columbia, Missouri and is blessed with one adult daughter, Aisha and Godson, Corvonn, as well as an almost 14-year-old grandson, Maurice, all of whom make her heart smile.
