†Call to Worship (responsive)

We have received the Good News.

The Good News that Jesus abides with us.

We have been gifted with voices to proclaim that which is good;

to speak for the innocent and guilty to praise, encourage and support to reach out and strengthen the fearful to protect the weak and lift up the fallen to share burdens and wipe away tears

to build up, not tear down to bless, not strike to give, not to withhold to understand and forgive

to love and share mercy

This is the Good News that we proclaim.

This is news worth sharing.

Gospel Reading

Stephen Hoell

John 17: 20-24

“I ask not only on behalf of these, but also on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one. As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. The glory that you have given me I have given them, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may become completely one, so that the world may know that you have sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me. Father, I desire that those also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am to see my glory, which you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world.”

The Gospel of our Lord.
Praise be to Christ.

†Song of Response

We Are

†Benediction

As people of faith we have gathered for worship

As people of faith we now return to the world,

Go out to share the story of faith,

The story of life with the world around you. ,

We share the faith in word and in deed,

In speech and in action.

As you go out to give a living witness

As you go out to testify to God's love active in the world

Go knowing that God goes with you

Sharing the laughter and the hope, the fears and the tears.

Thanks be to God! Amen.
