✿ The Third Sunday of Advent ✿

Welcome & Announcements

Brittany McDonald Null

†Call to Worship (responsive)

Our souls magnify the Lord, and our spirits rejoice in God our Savior.

God has looked with favor
on the lowliness of God's servant.

God's mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation.

God has shown strength with God's arm.
God has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.

God has brought down the powerful from their thrones,
and lifted up the lowly;

God has filled the hungry with good things,
and sent the rich away empty.

Come, for God is doing a new thing!
Come, let us worship God!

†Opening Song

Light of the World

†Passing the Peace of Christ

Lighting of the Third Advent Candle

Easton Kerns and Alyssa Morris

There is an ember of joy –
    A spark of fire spreading through creation-
The promise of God
    To Ruth
To Boaz
    To us.
It glows in every heart;
    In every soul it seeks to burst into flame.

The third candle is lit

Here is the ember of joy:
In a story passed on through the ages,
    In a love surpassing all loves,
In a God who became vulnerable,
    In the birth of a child
Who is God,
    Jesus of Nazareth,
Emmanuel, God with us.
    An ember whose flame will kindle the world.

Scripture Readings

Kimberly Moeller

Matthew 1:1; 5

An account of the genealogy of Jesus the Messiah, the son of David, the son of Abraham. And Salmon the father of Boaz by Rahab, and Boaz the father of Obed by Ruth, and Obed the father of Jesse.

Ruth 2:1-6, 8-12

Now Naomi had a kinsman on her husband's side, a prominent rich man, of the family of Elimelech, whose name was Boaz. And Ruth the Moabite said to Naomi, "Let me go to the field and glean among the ears of grain, behind someone in whose sight I may find favor." She said to her, "Go, my daughter." So she went. She came and gleaned in the field behind the reapers. As it happened, she came to the part of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech. Just then Boaz came from Bethlehem. He said to the reapers, "The Lord be with you." They answered, "The Lord bless you."

Then Boaz said to his servant who was in charge of the reapers, "To whom does this young woman belong?" The servant who was in charge of the reapers answered, "She is the Moabite who came back with Naomi from the country of Moab."

Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Now listen, my daughter, do not go to glean in another field or leave this one, but keep close to my young women. Keep your eyes on the field that is being reaped, and follow behind them. I have ordered the young men not to bother you. If you get thirsty, go to the vessels and drink from what the young men have drawn. "Then she fell prostrate, with her face to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found favor in your sight, that you should take notice of me, when I am a foreigner?" But Boaz answered her, "All that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband has been fully told me, and how you left your father and mother and your native land and came to a people that you did not know before. May the Lord reward you for your deeds, and may you have a full reward from the Lord, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge!"

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Litany for Remembering Ruth

God of Ruth and Naomi,
of hope in bitterness,
harvest in hunger,
life in death,

We offer our prayers of blessing of those who are vulnerable and on those who are taking risk
for their families and communities.

We thank you for the bold and faithful story of Ruth
The stranger in a strange land who was welcomed

A woman with no resources
Who was provided for by the community

We celebrate Ruth
And pray that we will find welcome when we need it and extend it to others in need. Amen.
