Invitation to Worship

Prayer of Confession (responsive)

Jesus, cleanser of temples and souls,
look deep within our hearts and our lives,
and clear away all that holds us back.

May our minds, spirits and bodies

be a temple that is open to Your presence:

and may our words and our actions
be transparent to Your love and truth.

We pray that this church community
will be purified in its life and mission,
so that all that we do in and from here
may reveal Your Gospel to others.

In a moment of silence we sit before You,
and name those things for which
we seek Your cleansing and healing,
so that we may be more faithful disciples.

Please pause for a moment of silence.

Words of Assurance

Friends of Jesus, we are made clean
by the words he has spoken to us.
There is room in our lives and in our community for the Holy One to dwell. Thanks be to God.

Amen.

Call to Worship (unison)

Just as bodies have many parts and each part has a special function, so it is with Christ's body. We are many parts of one body, and we all belong to each other.

†Processional Hymn

One Bread, One Body

Text by John B. Foley

(Please turn to face the cross as it enters)

One bread, one bod-y, one Lord of all, one cup of bless - ing which we bless. And we, though man-y through-out the earth,
we are one bod - y in this one Lord.

The second staff continues the melody with a quarter note C, a quarter note D, a quarter note E, and a quarter note F#. The lyrics "one cup of bless - ing which we bless. And" are written below the second staff. The third staff continues the melody with a quarter note G, a quarter note A, a quarter note B, and a quarter note C. The lyrics "we, though man-y through-out the earth," are written below the third staff. The fourth staff concludes the melody with a quarter note D, a quarter note E, a quarter note F#, and a quarter note G. Gospel Reading

John 2:13-22

The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money changers seated at their tables. Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables. He told those who were selling the doves, "Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father's house a marketplace!" His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will consume me." The Jews then said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews then said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking of the temple of his body. After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to Christ.

Call to Prayer

O My God, Bestow Thy Tender Mercy
Chancel Choir

arr. Hopson

O, my God, bestow Thy tender mercy.

Blot out my transgressions; cleanse my sin.

Restore me, forgive me, uphold me;

From all my sins, O hide Thy face.

I cry to Thee. Hear Thou my prayer.

Cast me not away. Take not Thy Holy Spirit from me.

Open Thou my lips, my mouth shall show forth Thy praise.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed by thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever. Amen.

Scripture Reading

1 Corinthians 3:10-23

According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building on it. Each builder must choose with care how to build on it.

For no one can lay any foundation other than the one that has been laid; that foundation is Jesus Christ. Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw—the work of each builder will become visible, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each has done. If what has been built on the foundation survives, the builder will receive a reward. If the work is burned up, the builder will suffer loss; the builder will be saved, but only as through fire.

Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.

Do not deceive yourselves. If you think that you are wise in this age, you should become fools so that you may become wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He catches the wise in their craftiness," and again, "The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile."

So let no one boast about human leaders. For all things are yours, whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future—all belong to you, and you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Affirmation (unison)

Let there be no gap between us and Christ.

For if there is any gap, immediately we perish.

For the building stands because it is cemented together.

Let us not then merely keep hold of Christ, but let us be cemented to him.

Let us cleave to him by our works.

He is the head, we are the body.

He is the foundation, we the building.

He is the vine, we the branches.

He is the bridegroom, we the bride.

He is the shepherd, we the sheep.

He is the way, we walk in it.

Again, we are the temple, he the indweller.

He is the only begotten, we the brothers and sisters.

He is the heir, we the heirs together with him.

He is the life, we the living.

He is the resurrection, we those who rise again.

He is the light, we the enlightened.

Kids@Heart – A Children’s Concert: Kindness & Diversity

 Rescheduled from January 14 to January 21 **

In collaboration with the Children’s Grove and the Columbia Youth Choir, the Odyssey Chamber Music series’ Kids@Heart concert takes a more thoughtful turn in touching upon two important issues in our society: Kindness and Diversity. Through a program featuring music, speech and visual arts, these three organizations bring awareness to our community. The concert begins at 3 pm on Saturday, January 21 and is preceded by 30 minutes of a visual storyboard featuring slides of CG Art and Photo Contest winners, and live music by pre-collegiate students.

“Unity” Benefit Concert

On Saturday, January 21st at 7 pm, the Columbia Chorale and other local artists gather in First Baptist’s sanctuary to present the 2nd annual Community Gospel Choir in a benefit concert to honor the peaceful teachings of Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr. This year’s central concert theme is inspired by Dr. King’s profound quote: “Life’s most persistent and urgent question is, ‘What are you doing for others?’” The event is free, and takes place in our sanctuary.

A sign-up board for 2017 sanctuary flowers is available in the children’s hallway, outside the sanctuary doors.
