Ephesians 2:1-10

You were dead through the trespasses and sins in which you once lived, following the course of this world, following the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work among those who are disobedient. All of us once lived among them in the passions of our flesh, following the desires of flesh and senses, and we were by nature children of wrath, like everyone else.

But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the ages to come he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God— not the result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Response: “Even then, grace” (responsive)

Even when we were dead, Paul writes.

Even when we turned away from the One who had created us.

Even when we lived in the grip of what drew our gaze from God.

Even when we were oblivious.

Even when we followed a path fashioned of nothing but our own desires.

Even when we wandered far and willfully away.

Even when we forgot to look past our own feet and to see the wonders not of our making.

Even when we failed to stand in awe, to breathe thanks,
to lean into the love that had waited long for us.

Even when, Paul writes.

Even when,

even then:

grace.

†Proclamation Hymn 130

O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing

(Please turn to face the cross as it enters)

†Passing the Peace of Christ

†Prayer of Confession (responsive)

Most gracious and most merciful God, we confess to you and to one another that time after time
we have entered your presence with countless prayers
but with hearts that have been closed to your grace.
We have lifted our hands to you in praise,
but our feet have still walked in the ways of evil.
We have rehearsed your commandments

but have refused to see your face in the needs of our neighbor.
We pray, Lord, that you forgive our lack of faith and pardon our acts of injustice.

Grant us the healing that comes from your presence and the cleansing of your grace,
through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

† Assurance of Pardon (responsive)

To all who turn from sin in sorrow,
to all who turn to God in hope,
this is God's Word of grace:
We are accepted, we are forgiven, we are loved.
This gift we have from God.

Thanks be to God.

Praise to the Lord

arr. Wilburg

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul, praise him, for he is thy health and salvation!
All ye who hear, now to his temple draw near;
join me in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth, shelters thee under his wings, yea, so gently sustaineth!
Hast thou not seen how thy desires e'er have been granted in what he ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work and defend thee, surely his goodness and mercy here daily attend thee.
Ponder anew what the Almighty can do,
if with his love he befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore him!
All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before him!
Let the amen sound from his people again:
gladly forever adore him.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever. Amen.

First Baptist 101

If you sense that God is drawing you to the community at First Baptist, we celebrate that and we want you to have a chance to get to know our church! First Baptist 101 is a class for adults who are new members or anyone interested in learning more about First Baptist. We are addressing questions such as, “What does it mean to be a member of First Baptist?” and “What does it mean to be Baptist?”

First Baptist 101 meets for two more one-hour classes, today and on October 15 at 4 pm in the Parlor, located on the 2nd floor across from the church offices.

Today’s session focuses on understanding First Baptist leadership structure, the church staff, committees, goals and vision of the church and it taught by Pastor Carol McEntyre.

On October 15 we will present an overview of First Baptist ministries, opportunities to serve, and a building tour.

For more information or to sign up for child care, contact Pastor Carol McEntyre at mcentyre@fbc-columbia.org or 573-442-1149

Today’s scripture reader is Judy Elliott. Judy and her husband Jim have been members of First Baptist since moving to Columbia in 1968. Judy has served on a number of church committees (even taught a Sunday school class in Spanish) and participates in many community service organizations. Judy especially enjoyed her trip to Tijuana, Mexico, with Ed Rollins and the youth group as they lived in tents and constructed homes for the less fortunate. Judy also worked as a Spanish interpreter at MU Hospitals, taught Spanish at MU for a number of years and has taken more than 800 people for Spanish immersion to Mexico. She continues to teach for MU Osher as a volunteer when she is in Columbia. Jim and Judy have two children and four grandchildren who live in Florida Two of the grandchildren have returned to study at MU. If Judy is not singing in the choir or playing her harp, she is probably headed for her second home in Florida or Mexico. Judy appreciates the church's care extended to her mother at Tiger Place.
